A New Look For Wigder Chevrolet

In accordance with General Motors' new Chevrolet facility image program, Klæ Construction has completed renovations to the Wigder Chevrolet dealership on West Mount Pleasant Avenue in Livingston, N.J.

After demolishing the existing showroom, a 6,200-square-foot addition was constructed that includes a new showroom, sales offices, restrooms, service drop-off area, new car delivery section, and a shipping and receiving area with a mezzanine above. New customer amenities were also provided with a lounge, refreshment, and business center.

Renovations were performed to the existing administration offices, retail parts, cashier and conference/lunch room.

The new building façade features the iconic new Chevrolet entry element.

Architectural design was provided by Louis Edward Barbieri Architect-Planner.

For three generations and more than 70 years, the Wigder family has been fulfilling the automotive desires and needs of their customers, making the car buying and servicing experience easy and enjoyable.
