Beyer Ford Gets a Whole New Look

The sales department.

The new showroom.

Klae Construction recently completed new additions and renovations for Beyer Ford on Ridgedale Avenue in Morristown, N.J. Beyer Ford is a local, family-run business that was originally formed in 1914 as Beyer Bros., a bicycle repair shop. Over the next five decades, the company grew to a gas station and then a vehicle repair shop. In 1964 the family expanded to operating as a GMC truck franchise, and in 2011 purchased the Warnock family's Ford dealership.

Here are some of the project details:

- 1,700-square-foot service drive through addition
- 500-square-foot addition for two new restrooms
- 8,500-square-foot interior renovations including: offices, a customer lounge, cashier, service write-up area, a retail parts area, a conference room, a break room and a new showroom
- The new façade is finished with aluminum composite metal siding panels featuring the 29-foot high Ford Icon Entry Tower and a new aluminum and glass storefront
- The project was completed in multiple phases

The New Goddard School in Paramus

Klae Construction recently completed the new 8,900-square-foot Goddard School on Forest Avenue in Paramus, N.J.

The project included complete site development with lot clearing, earth fill, new underground utilities, subsurface stormwater detention system, retaining walls, paving, lighting, landscaping and a playground area.

Built to strict specifications, the facility conforms to the extremely high standards of cleanliness and security required by Goddard Systems Inc.—the franchisor of the Goddard School—for its early childhood education facilities.

The new Goddard School, located in Paramus, N.J.

Making learning fun is at the core of the Goddard program. Each day, guided by highly trained child care professionals, a child selects activities and materials to explore and discover in an imaginative and creative way. The focus on developing communication, collaboration, critical thinking and creativity, leads to a child's learning independence and school readiness.
